

Below is an article written by one of our newer party members, Karen Lienau. She moved to Delaware from North Carolina a year or so ago and works as a social worker at the Ministry of Caring.

Karen Lienau
Committee to Elect Vivian Houghton Attorney General
KarenLienau@aol.com

Vivian Houghton, a Wilmington attorney and longtime crusader for community activism, is giving Delawareans a better choice for Attorney General in this year's November election. Houghton, a straight shooter who is not afraid to speak out on the issues she stands for, plans to give the voters a chance to elect someone who will fight for social and environmental justice, while holding government officials accountable for their actions. She is clearly the only strong choice for a Delaware resident concerned about the health of our state and its' residents.

Vivian has a high profile in Delaware politics. She was the past president of the Wilmington chapter of the National Organization for Women and was the state coordinator for the Rainbow Coalition. She decided to join the Green party because she feels more in line with what the Greens stand for, and how they operate politically. Her platforms include; holding corporations accountable for endangering Delaware residents or our environment, investigating industrial racial profiling, opposing the death penalty, supporting a livable wage and domestic partner benefits for all municipal, county and state employees, medical parity for all Delawareans, making sure that education opportunities are equal for all Delaware children, putting redistricting issues under citizen-controlled supervision, and working to develop renewable energy.

Vivian Houghton is a candidate for the people of Delaware. Other candidates are cozy with big corporations at the expense of the general populations' health and well-being. This has become only too obvious in the wake of the Enron debacle and the effects it will have on subsidiaries incorporated in Delaware.

Please take advantage of the opportunity to hear a politician for the people at Vivian's announcement on April 29th. She will be in:

Sussex County at 9:00 am at
Our Place Restaurant and Garden Patio,
37 Baltimore Ave. in Rehoboth Beach.

Following will be a lunchtime engagement from 12:00 to 2:00 pm in
Kent County at Jonathan's Landing Golf Club
Clubhouse, 1309 Ponderosa Drive, Magnolia.

Finally, she will top off the day at 5:30 pm in
New Castle County at the
Delaware Association of Police
2201 Lancaster Avenue in Wilmington. DE

If you are tired of wondering what you can do to make a change in what seems to be a fixed state of dishonest government, look no further. Vote Vivian Houghton to ensure that your Attorney General is truly looking out for the safety of yourself, your family, and our home state.
